Dear Harry:

As he left for a trip out West, Mr. Dulles asked me to thank you for sending him a copy of your article of 4 July on the [REDACTED]. Naturally we are glad to see thoughtful articles on such as yours in print as an antidote to the shower of slings and arrows that the report has set off.

We are making progress but we still have a long way to go to counteract a high level tendency to exaggerate the malignancy and underestimate the physical strength and technical abilities of the Communist powers, especially with respect to China.

I do hope that you will be coming to Washington soon so that we can speculate on or Monday-morning-quarterback the Geneva Conference.
